A DREAM COME TRUE: THE MAGICAL PAINTING

I have always wanted to have my painting in the national Arts Gallery of Zimbabwe. Here i am today as a ten year old little girl, standing before the canvas brush in hand. I never imagined that my art would come to life.

Just like Maxwell Simba, from the film "The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind" I wanted my dream to come true. My dream of becoming a famous artist seemed within reach. My painting was there hung up with colours dancing and shapes transformed. People admired my work and I felt proud.

I realized that with passion and creativity even the impossible can become possible. My world of painting unlocked, indeed it as a dream come true.
