

A dream come true

One night as I was going to bed neither my mum nor my dad came to say, "good night". I tried to figure out what this could mean for so long I fell asleep.

I had a dream about me going to a soccer game and having a chance to meet Messi at the stadium. I also dreamt of my family and I going to America. The next day I woke up very early. My mum said, "Luke pack your bags we are going to America". I said to myself, "Well this is odd". But I just went with it. By time we got to the airport it was just on time. After being in the plane for 16 hours we finally arrived.

Then my dad said, "I have a surprise." It was a soccer game. I also got to meet Messi in real life! Then I realised that this is a dream come true.
