A Magical Parade

The cold wind whispered and whistled against the full moon. Maya was outside exploring the forest when she caught a glimpse of an array of bright rainbow lights between the trees. Getting closer, she found a torch next to a weird creature with yellow piercing cat eyes. In a raspy tone it asked "Are you getting in? " parting the leafy shrubs to reveal something spectacular. A world full of fantasy, spectacular and enchanting creatures. A fairy with deep emerald green eyes suddenly grabbed her hands and led her deep into the parade. After hours of partying, she decided to sit down and just as she blinked it all disappeared but that day onwards, she would never forget the magical parade.
