A Dream Come True

Imagine a dream come true. You could go to many places where you want, your dream pet or even your dream food. There are a lot of dreams you could have but mine is going to the Bahamas. When I was small I didn't really know many places but growing up I watched many YouTubers posting videos of them going to the Bahamas. The most interesting part of the Bahamas is feeding the pigs. This may sound disgusting but I've always wanted to experience it as well as the waterpark. I've seen many people go on a ride called the Leap Of Faith and it would definitely be a dream come true.
