

Ruth Namatwaiiyishe Katuri

11-year-old

175 Words

0782911982/0784166689

Westridge Primary School

A Dream Come True

There was a BANG! a SWOOSH! a CLASH! and suddenly there was a dream. A 11-year-old girl 'Michelle' was fast asleep drooling and slumbering thinking about her dreams.

Michelle's dream starts off early in the morning at the rise of dawn. Michelle woke up and did her morning routine. She brushed her teeth, bathed, changed her outfit and ate her breakfast. Michelle then called her father, who stayed in Brazzaville, her dad had problems to find jobs so she was a bit sad.

Michelle's father said that he was applying but no jobs were to be found. Michelle eventually gave up and spent the day sleeping and sobbing. While Michelle was sleeping, her mother woke her up and told her that her father had found a job in Germany.

For a moment, Michelle thought that it was a palter but surprisingly it was not. Michelle confirmed with her dad and he said that it was true. From that day Michelle started packing and the day to leave came. Michelle knew that this was a dream come true.