THE ADVENTURE I NEVER EXPECTED

Jessica came back from school with great excitement! The school camp was in two days and she could hardly wait for three days of fun! The two days swiftly flew by and early on the third day, Jessica was seated on her school bus ready to go. A few minutes after departure, Jessica felt strange rumbles in her tummy. Initially, she paid no attention to them. As the bus drove on the bumpy road, Jessica's tummy began to ache and she felt like "she had to go". She could not endure it anymore and forced herself to sleep. After what seemed like forever, the bus pulled up at the campsite driveway. Jessica dashed out of the bus to the restrooms...
