I was on a plane to South Africa and the flight attendant said, “ I am so sorry, we are all going to die, the plane is going to crash. You can put on your life jacket if you want but there is no hope.” “Ahhhhhhhhhh! We are going to die!” said the person sitting next to me. “Ahhhhhh!”

So I put on my life-jacket but no one else did, which was really stupid. So anyway, we crashed and everyone died but me. I was bouncing so much because of my life-jacket. I bounced so many times, all the way to South Africa! It was crazy! That was the most unexpected adventure ever!
